This application is for an individual performer only.
For the policy year ending 12th October 2025

By becoming a member of Duck for Cover you will be covered for public liability arising from your insured activities. As only the performer will know all of the activities they will include in their act, it is essential that this application is completed by the performer applying for membership. Members under 18 years of age, will need the form signed by their parent or legal guardian.

The Duck for Cover policies are current until 12th October 2025.

You will be covered from the date your application is approved by Duck for Cover until 4pm, 12th October 2025.

All policies have full schedules and policy wordings listed under the The Official Bits section of the Duck for Cover website.

<https://www.duckforcover.com.au/html/the-official-bits.cfm>

Cover is world-wide, for Australian citizens and permanent residents.

Overseas visitors to Australia can become members of Duck for Cover BUT the Public Liability policy will only cover them while they are performing in Australia.

This form is only for an individual performer. To register a group with Duck for Cover, all the performing members of the group need to first each take out individual membership of Duck for Cover or, if eligible, alternatively take out Community Performing Group cover. Please check the Group information page for more information.

By submitting this membership application, you are agreeing to allow Duck for Cover to confirm your current membership with third parties (such as agents or employers) who may wish to establish your membership status. The only details that will be provided are those available on your certificate. That is your name, your Duck membership number, the date you are covered from, and the activities covered.

Membership of Duck for Cover (also referred to on this page as "The Association") is subject to approval by the Association. Liability cover is subject to approval by the Insurer.

Duck for Cover's receipt of your application and/or payment does not mean you are covered. You will be covered when your application is accepted, and you receive written confirmation from Duck for Cover.

You are covered from the date your application is approved until 12th October 2025.
There is no refund available once your application for membership has been accepted and forwarded to the insurer.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Before you enter into a contract of general Insurance with an Insurer, you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to the Insurer every matter that you know or can reasonably be expected to know is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to accept risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms. You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend or reinstate a contract of general Insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of matters:

- That diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- That is of common knowledge;
- That your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of their business, ought to know;
- As to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled to reduce his liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

THIRD PARTIES

The policy only covers the interest of the Insured and does not extend to include the interest of a third party in the contract.

SUBROGATION

The liability of the Insurer may be limited or excluded should the Insured be a party to an Agreement which limits or excludes the right of the Insured to recover damages from a third party.

Please refer to the Duck website www.duckforcover.com.au to view more detail on the policies we hold for our members.
